BANDA ACEH - Governor of Lemhannas RI Andi Widajanto became a guest speaker in the Public Lecture at the State Islamic University (UIN) Ar-Raniry, Banda Aceh with the theme "Preparing Human Resources Towards Golden Indonesia 2045 in the Context of National Resilience" on Monday (16/1), at the UIN Postgraduate Building Ar-Raniry, Banda Aceh.

The public lecture which was attended by the entire academic community including post-graduate students, doctorates, professors, and alumni of Lemhannas RI in Aceh, was opened by Deputy Chancellor 2 of UIN Ar-Raniry for General Administration of Planning and Finance Prof. Dr. Chairuddin, M.Ag and moderated by the Chairman of IKAL-Lemhannas Regional Management Board Prof. Dr. Syahrizal Abbas, M.A.

In his presentation, Andi Widajanto conveyed risks in 2023 which are dominated by global risks. To produce a deeper study, Lemhannas RI needs to work with various parties including Aceh Provincial Government and DPD IKAL-Aceh to seek mitigation so that it can offer solutions at the national and local levels.

In alluding to the national economic projection, Indonesia is still showing positive signs amidst the global slowdown trend. This is the result of optimism from the manufacturing industry, supported by strong domestic demand and controlled inflation.

Concluding his public lecture, Andi Widajanto said that Indonesia was fortunate because, since 2014, it had entered a demographic bonus period. The demographic bonus period is a great opportunity for Indonesia to realize its vision as a developed country in 2045.

Strengthening of National Values Program in Aceh

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI Christians and Catholics employees held a 2022 Christmas Celebration with the theme "Them Return to Their Country by Another Path" on Thursday (19/1), at the residence of the Governor of Lemhannas RI, East Jakarta.

Present to give Christmas reflections at the service, Pdt. Dr. Julius Parapat and led a prayer for the nation and country Pastor R.D. David Lerebulan. In the Christmas reflections it is conveyed that humans always live their lives based on God's instructions. In living life, humans must also always be enthusiastic in facing the challenges that come.

The momentum of the Christmas celebration was also used as a moment of sharing love by giving ropes of love to representatives of members of the security unit, cleaning services, and volunteers serving at Lemhannas RI as well as giving ropes of love to the Elsafan Foundation which is a service institution for blind children in the East Jakarta area.

On this occasion, the Governor of Lemhannas RI Andi Widjajanto in his remarks expressed his gratitude for organizing the 2022 Christmas Celebration. He also reminded that the reflections presented could be a guide in living 2023.

"The world (in 2023) is predicted to be dark, our task at Lemhannas RI is very, very simple, be a candle and be a light so that in that darkness we can be seen to guide," said Andi Widjajanto. He also emphasized that it was the duty of Lemhannas RI to make efforts so that Indonesia would not get darker and could continue.

Governor of Lemhannas RI Expects Stronger Synergy between Lemhannas RI and IKAL-Lemhannas

JAKARTA - Governor of Lemhannas RI, Andi Widjajanto, attended the 3rd National Working Meeting (Rakernas) of Alumni Association of Lemhannas RI (IKAL-Lemhannas) of 2023 on Saturday (21/1), at Gajah Mada Auditorium, Pancagatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

With the theme “IKAL-Lemhannas as a Catalyst for National Unity”, the IKAL-Lemhannas 3rd Rakernas of 2023 aims to evaluate the work program of 2022 and to formulate the 2023 work program plan. The meeting was conducted in a hybrid manner and was attended by commissaries from the Central Executive Board (DPP), Regional Executive Councils (DPD), and the Batch Executive Board (DPA) consisting of PPRA 64 and PPSA 23 alumni.

During his remarks, Andi Widjajanto conveyed several points that President

Joko Widodo assigned to Lemhannas RI. Lemhannas RI must shape future national leaders by strengthening their four peculiar main pillars including national resilience, strategic leadership, national awareness (crisis decision making), and geopolitics. “This is the core of the training of education participants at Lemhannas RI that consist of officers from the Indonesian National Defense Forces (TNI), the Indonesian National Police (Polri), and civilian groups,” he said.

Regarding the strengthening of national values, Andi Widjajanto asked the Chairperson of IKAL-Lemhannas, General TNI (Ret) Agum Gumelar to find an opportunity to accommodate alumni with a special division so that they remain a part from Lemhannas RI. Apart from that, there have been requests from several party general chairmen for Lemhannas RI to conduct strengthening of national values programs for legislative candidates before campaigns. Regarding the strategic study function at Lemhannas RI, President Joko Widodo has asked Lemhannas RI to focus on five topics, including democracy consolidation, green economy, blue economy, digital transformation, and development of the New Capital of Nusantara (IKN).

With those kinds of tasks, Andi Widjajanto truly hopes that the synergy between Lemhannas RI and IKAL-Lemhannas grow stronger. In the future, the results of the 3rd National Working Meeting in 2023 intend to support the tasks given to Lemhannas RI.

in 2023, and geopolitical dynamics. Related to this, Lemhannas RI also needs to strengthen strategic communication with other government institutions, one of which is LKBN ANTARA.

During the meeting, Andi Widjanto said that there were several things that needed to be conveyed to the public, especially in explaining the government's position in mitigating the crisis.

Responding to this, Meidyatama Suryodiningrat saw that the biggest challenge in government policy was coordination and communication with external parties. Even though according to him, the government already has tools that are actually relatively very advanced to ward off issues and information wars that are developing.

Furthermore, the Main Director of LKBN ANTARA continues with the era of social media and society which has developed increasingly with a troublesome echo chamber. However, it should be overcome with coordination and communication.

A number of LKBN ANTARA officials who attended the meeting were Reporting Director Akhmad Munir, Corporate Secretary Azhari, Managing Editor Teguh Priyanto, Executive Editor Gusti Nur Cahyani, and Coordinator of Political, Legal, and Security Editorial Coverage Imam Budilaksono.

Also attended the meeting to accompany the Governor of Lemhannas RI was the Deputy for Strategic Studies Prof. Dr. Ir. Reni Mayerni, M.P., Chief of Public Relations Bureau Brigadier General Suratno, S.I.P., Chief of the Legal and Cooperation Bureau Commodore Deny Septiana, S.A.P., M.A.P., and Head of Protocol and Reporting Division Drs. Paiman, M.I.P.

JAKARTA - The Regular Education Program (PPRA) Batch 65 of 2023 Lemhannas RI was officially opened on Tuesday (31/1), at Dwi Warna Purwa Room, Lemhannas RI. A hundred of PPRA 65 participants coming from various backgrounds, including TNI, Polri, Ministries, State Institutions, Political Parties, Community Organizations, Business Entities, and friendly countries, attend the education program for seven months at Lemhannas RI.

On this occasion, the Governor of Lemhannas RI, Andi Widjajanto, conveyed President Joko Widodo's directions stating that the national leaders shaped by Lemhannas RI's education program must possess three qualities, namely national values, geopolitical insight, and strategic thinking.

Andi Widjajanto then explained the three qualities. Concerning national values, national leaders must understand national principles of Indonesia by adhering to Pancasila. The second quality requires national leaders to have geopolitical insight so that they understand the dynamics of the fight of major countries in the region and understand the consequences of this fight.

The third pillar demands leaders to be able to think strategically to contribute their thoughts and strategic steps in preparing Indonesia towards 2045. "Recognizing historical political and economic experiences then using them to make future projections, offering strategic steps, offering a roadmap for Indonesia to become a developed country in 2045," he explained.

In addition, Andi Widjajanto explained that during the education period, Pancasila, geopolitics, and 2045 projection would be continuously emphasized so that in the future, the participants are ready to take new responsibilities as leaders in their respective institutions and can offer new breakthroughs for the next ten to twenty years.

Also present at the Opening Ceremony of PPRA 65 Lemhannas RI were Minister of Maritime Affairs and Fisheries of the Republic of Indonesia, Sakti Wahyu Trenggono, and a number of officials representing Ministries/Institutions of the PPRA 65 participants.
