JAKARTA - The Deputy for Strategic Studies at Lemhannas RI held an urgent and quick study Focus Group Discussion (FGD) on "Breaking Off the Military Wing Network of the Terror Group in Papua Province" on Wednesday (15/3) in the Kresna Room, Astagatra Building, 4th Floor, Lemhannas RI.

This study is one of a series of studies to be carried out in 2023 with the aim of finding new solutions that can win the hearts of the Papuan people for the integrity of the Republic of Indonesia from Sabang to Merauke. "We hope that the situation in Papua becomes more conducive, the people feel comfortable and peaceful, and the economy in the Papua region will increase and synergize with other regions in Indonesia," Deputy for Strategic Studies Prof. Dr. Ir. Reni Mayerni, M.P said when delivering her report.

In his remarks, the Governor of Lemhannas RI Andi Widjajanto said that in the second round of this FGD, Lemhannas RI focused on existing networks in Papua. He emphasized that we must design a systematic, operational, tactical strategy step by step to dismantle their network after we successfully map it.

The FGD which was facilitated by the Professional Expert for the Political division of Lemhannas RI Prof. Dr. Ikrar Nusa Bhakti presented several speakers, including Military Observer Lieut. Gen. (Ret.) Kiki Syahnakri; The Deputy Head of the Strategic Intelligence Agency for the Indonesian National Armed Forces Air Commodore Jemi Trisonjaya, SM, M.Tr. M.; Intelligence Observer Rear Admiral (Ret.) Soleman B. Ponto, S.T., M.H.; Director of State Security of intelligence and Security of The Indonesian Police Brigadier General of Police Drs. Ruslan Ependi, M.Sc.; Auxiliary Officer of IV/Opdagri Sops TNI Colonel Inf. Kristomei Sianturi, S.Sos., M.Sc.; Permanent Lecturer at State Intelligence College (STIN) Dr. Stepi Anriani, S.IP., M.Si.

Routine Meeting of Perista and Female Employees of Lemhannas RI in Welcoming the Holy Month of Ramadhan 1444 Hijriah

JAKARTA - The Association of Wives of Lemhannas RI Officials (Perista) and Lemhannas RI female employees held a regular meeting on Wednesday (15/3) in the Constitution Room, Trigatra Building, 3rd Floor, Lemhannas RI. The meeting was held in order to welcome the holy month of Ramadan 1444 Hijriah.

Mrs. Wiwied Andi Heru as the organizer expressed her gratitude to the participants who attend the event. Furthermore, Mrs. Wiwied Andi Heru hopes that the regular meeting of Perista and Lemhannas RI's female employees can provide benefits in their daily lives.

Present as a guest speaker was Ustadzah Liza Azizah who is known as a presenter for the tvOne religious program "Assalamualaikum Bunda". In her lecture, she said that the best woman is one who is good at comforting her husband. In addition to this, other efforts to create a harmonious household can be started by having a sense of good prejudice against our husbands and providing education and a good name for children.

This is in line with the statement "The mother is the main educator for her child". Ustadzah Liza Azizah conveyed to teach religious knowledge to our children. "Prepare our children to become future generations of Islam," she said.

At the end of the event, Acting Chairwoman of Perista Mrs. Uke Sabrar Fadhilah also expressed her respect for the participants who had attended the meeting. He hopes that the participants can take lessons from the lectures delivered and strengthen the relationship among female employees. In addition to fruitful lectures, the event also presented religious song entertainment and door prizes.

BANDUNG - Governor of Lemhannas RI, Andi Widjajanto, was present as a guest speaker at a coordination meeting with the Deputy Chief of Staff for Politics, Law, Defense, Security, and Human Rights on Thursday (16/3) at Swiss-Belresort Dago Heritage, Bandung.

During the meeting, Andi Widjajanto delivered his presentation entitled "Election 2024" and pointed out that the condition of democracy in Indonesia is above the global average. Indonesia is considered qualified in political rights, especially the electoral process. However, Indonesia is deemed weak in the aspects of civil liberties and political culture.

To create a mature democracy, Indonesia needs to carry out seven consecutive democratic elections. The 2024 election is the key momentum for the implementation of democracy in Indonesia. The implementation of elections undoubtedly contains susceptibilities which that not only can occur in the election process but also have the potential to become security vulnerabilities and thus must be anticipated.

Concluding his presentation, Andi Widjajanto advised the Deputy Chief of Staff for Politics, Law, Defense, Security, and Human Rights to keep monitoring the development of digital platforms.

The event was moderated by the Senior Advisor for Politics Sigit Pamungkas, who also presented a lecturer from the Department of Communication Studies, Faculty of Social Science and Political Science, Gadjah Mada University, Kuskridho Ambardi as a guest speaker.

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI held a Socialization of PPRA 66 Participant Admission for domestic and foreign stakeholders on Tuesday (21/3), at Nusantara Room 2, Trigatra Building, Lemhannas RI. Through this event, it was explained in detail the process of accepting PPRA 66 participants specifically those from friendly countries was explained in detail.

Head Chief of Legal and Cooperation Bureau of Lemhannas RI Commodore Deny Septiana, S.A.P., M.A.P. who opened the socialization said that Lemhannas RI was originally established as an educational institution that focuses on defense and security issues. However, with the increasing number of state tasks, Lemhannas RI also covers various other fields. "All of these aspects are constantly reviewed from Indonesian perspectives in the context of national resilience," he said. This is a form of response to dynamic developments at the regional, national, and global levels.

The Admission of PPRA 66 participants from friendly countries aims to strengthen cooperative relations between Indonesia and countries in the region, as well as with countries in other parts of the world.

"Therefore, we also provide opportunities for other countries that have never sent their representatives to study at Lemhannas RI," said Deny Septiana said.

On this occasion, the Head of the Foreign Cooperation Division, Colonel Raja E. Girsang, S.E., M.M., M.Sc also conveyed several points regarding the PPRA 66 educational method and curriculum, bahasa Indonesia courses, local cultural orientation, PPRA 66 pre-courses, general requirements, and required documents, and the available facilities at Lemhannas RI.

JAKARTA - The Deputy for Strategic Studies at Lemhannas RI held a Focus Group Discussion (FGD) “Projection of Global Political Risk for the First Quarter of 2023” on Wednesday (29/3) at Kresna Room, 4th Floor of Astagatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

In her speech, The Deputy for Strategic Studies of Lemhannas RI Prof. Dr. Ir. Reni Mayerni, M.P stated that the global political risk study is conducted based on the dynamics of the development of the strategic environment in 2023 that are increasingly dynamic along with the escalation of global politics in the midst of the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine.

Tensions between big powers tend to escalate due to NATO’s interests with the United States to create military superiority against Russia in the war in Ukraine. In addition, the momentum of Xi Jinping’s visit to Russia indicates that the competition between the big powers China and the United States is likely to heat up, although Xi Jinping seeks to play a constructive role in resolving the Ukraine issue by offering a proposal to end the war between Russia and Ukraine which is called “Global Security Initiatives”.

The FGD presented speakers from various fields, namely Director of Europe II of Directorate General of America and Europe of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia, Mr. Winardi Hanafi Lucky; Head of the National Strategic Installation Agency of the Ministry of Defense of the Republic of Indonesia, Maj. Gen. Yudi Abrimantyo, S.I.P., M.sc.; Senior Researcher of Politics Research Center of the National Research and Innovation Agency of the Republic of Indonesia, Drs. M. Hamdan Basyar, M.Si.; Director of the Graduate School of Diplomacy of Paramadina University, Dr. Phil Shiska Prabawaningtyas; Lecturer of the Postgraduate Program of People’s Republic of China Politics at Driyarkara School of Philosophy, Dr. Klaus H. Raditio; and Senior Analyst of LAB 45, Reine Prihandoko.

JAKARTA - Indonesian Civil Servant Corps (Korpri) Lemhannas RI held Ramadhan Bazaar on Wednesday and Thursday (12-13/4) at Dwiwarna Purwa Room, Lemhannas RI. The Chairwoman of Korpri Lemhannas RI, Prof. Dr. Ir. Bondan Tiara Sofyan, M.Si, as the person in charge explained that the routine bazaar displayed 150 stands consisting of 80 micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) stands, 10 large retailer stands, 7 Perista stands and 8 Lemhannas RI internal stands.

In his remarks, the Governor of Lemhannas RI, Andi Widjajanto, expressed his gratitude to the Ramadhan Bazaar committee for their excellent work in organizing the bazaar. On the same occasion, Andi Widjajanto and other Lemhannas RI officials visited the bazaar stands and carried out a symbolic selling of groceries packages.

The unique concept of this year's bazaar was the fashion show that aimed to display the clothes sold by the bazaar stands. The models were Lemhannas RI's personnel whose talents were captured through the Lemhannas Fashion Week competition held during the commemoration of Korpri's Anniversary last year.

The Ramadan Bazaar also provided 1,500 coupons to purchase two liters of cooking oil. The committee distributed 1000 coupons to all personnel of Lemhannas RI and 500 coupons to the community members and government employees around Lemhannas RI.
