JAKARTA - The Deputy for Strategic Studies at Lemhannas RI held a Focus Group Discussion (FGD) "ASEAN Vision 2045" on Monday (17/4), in the Kresna Room, Astagatra Building, 4th Floor, Lemhannas RI.

In his remarks, The Deputy for Strategic Studies of Lemhannas RI Prof. Dr. Ir. Reni Mayerni, M.P. said that currently, Indonesia holds a central role in 2023 as the Chair of ASEAN. The 2023 ASEAN Chair, which carries the theme "ASEAN Matters: Epicentrum Of Growth", aims to make ASEAN remain important and relevant to the ASEAN community and the world.

ASEAN's central role is expected to contribute to regional and global stability, especially as a driving force for regional peace and prosperity. "Some of the focus of discussion at the FGD this time included seeing how the geopolitical context influences the development and the vision of ASEAN 2045," Reni Mayerni said.

The discussion facilitated by Lemhannas RI Professional Expert of International Relations and Diplomacy Edy Prasetyono, S.Sos., M.I.S., Ph.D. is intended as a means of brainstorming in order to provide an overview of the development of the ASEAN Vision 2045 by taking into account geopolitical developments, especially related to the agenda, targets, and stages for which the ASEAN community must go through.

The speakers who attended the FGD were Special Staff of the Minister of Foreign Affairs for Diplomacy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia, Mr. I Gede Ngurah Swajaya, S.H., M.A., Indonesian Ambassador and Permanent Envoy to the United Nations, Dr. Dian Triansyah Djani, SE., M.A., Ambassador of the Republic of Indonesia to the United Kingdom for the 2016-2020 Period Dr. Rizal Sukma, M.Sc., and Deputy Secretary-General of ASEAN for Political-Security Community Mr. H.E. Robert Matheus Michael Tene.

The Governor of Lemhannas RI Welcomes the visit of the FKPPI Central Administrator

JAKARTA -The Governor of Lemhannas RI Andi Widjajanto welcomed the visit of the General Chairperson of the Communication Forum for Sons and Daughters of Retired Officers and Sons and Daughters of the Indonesian Armed Forces and the Indonesian Police (KB FKPPI) Pontjo Sutowo and his staff on Monday (17/4), in the Governor's Executive Guest Room, Trigatra Building 1st Floor, Lemhannas RI.

During the visit, Pontjo Sutowo conveyed some of FKPPI's main programs including state defense to participate in building the state and carrying out FKPPI consolidation which was divided into four, namely conceptual, insight, organization, and territorial development. Therefore, Pontjo Sutowo asked for suggestions to carry out FKPPI activity to run as expected.

Andi Widjajanto, who welcomed the arrival of the FKPPI KB Management, said that Lemhannas RI was open to establishing communications because Lemhannas RI and FKPPI had the same mission to defend the state.

As an institution whose function is to conduct studies on the President, Andi Widjajanto said that this year has a special feature due to geopolitical turmoil which has caused 2023 to run abnormally. "This vigilance is what we can both form," he said.

For this reason, Andi Widjajanto hopes that FKPPI can help establish awareness in the provinces of Indonesia. "We are very happy that this collaboration can be implemented," he concluded.

Also, present accompanying the Governor of Lemhannas RI was Deputy of Strengthening National Values of Lemhannas RI Rear Admiral Edi Sucipto, S.E., M.M., M.Tr. Opsla, Chief of Legal and Cooperation Bureau of Lemhannas RI Rear Admiral Deny Septiana, S.A.P., M.A.P., and Chief of Public Relations Bureau of Lemhannas RI Brigadier General Suratno, S.I.P.

The Executive Board of the General Synod of the Protestant Church in Indonesia Pays a Courtesy Call to The Governor of Lemhannas RI

JAKARTA - The Chairman of the Executive Board (BPH) of the General Synod of Protestant Church in Indonesia Priest Rudy Ririhena accompanied by several staff members visited the Governor of Lemhannas RI, Andi Widjajanto, on Tuesday (18/4), at the Governor's Executive Guest Room, 1st Floor of Trigatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

At the Courtesy Call, Priest Rudy Ririhena expressed his gratitude to Lemhannas RI for attending the last annual meeting which was represented by Professional Expert of Strategy at Lemhannas RI, Rear Admiral (Ret.) Robert Mangindaan. The attendance was deemed impactful because of the directions and recommendations shared during the session.

Furthermore, Priest Rudy Ririhena conveyed the conclusion of the annual meeting and revealed three points that were considered important to be conveyed to the Governor of Lemhannas

RI. First, the wish that the General Synod of the Protestant Church in Indonesia will cooperate with Lemhannas RI and send its delegation to participate in Lemhannas RI's education program.

Second, the plans for holding a seminar in September that will discuss topics related to the responsibility of the church as the pillars of national resilience towards the 2024 election. It is expected that the Governor of Lemhannas RI can attend and deliver directions at the seminar.

Third, the General Synod of the Protestant Church in Indonesia will hold an assembly meeting in Papua. It is hoped that the Governor of Lemhannas RI will also attend and give directions to the church leaders who will be attending.

In addition, Priest Rudy Ririhena also hoped to collaborate with Lemhannas RI. "If there are programs at Lemhannas RI that are suitable for us to be involved in, please do invite us. We are glad to proceed," he said.

Meanwhile, Andi Widjajanto appreciated the points conveyed by Priest Rudy Ririhena. "Basically, we welcome collaboration," he said. He also conveyed the need for further discussion regarding the topics to be prepared and collaborated on.

Also present accompanying the Governor of Lemhannas RI were the Deputy for Strengthening of National Values, Rear Admiral Edi Sucipto, S.E., M.M., M.Tr.Opsla; the Chief of Cooperation and Legal Bureau, Commodore Deny Septiana, S.A.P., M.A.P.; and the Chief of Public Relations Bureau, Brigadier General Suratno, S.I.P.

Three Directives from the Governor of Lemhannas RI at the Inauguration of the PPSA 24 Senate

 04/2023

JAKARTA - The Governor of Lemhannas RI, Andi Widjajanto, inaugurated the PPSA 24 Senate of 2023 on Tuesday (18/4) at the Dwiwarna Purwa Room, 1st Floor of Pancagatra Building, Lemhannas RI. The PPSA 24 Senate was ratified by the Governor of Lemhannas RI Decree Number 97 of 2023 concerning the Organization of the Senate Board of Participants of PPSA 24 of 2023 Lemhannas RI.

Police Brigadier General Chaidir, S.H., S.I.K., M.Si., M.P.P. who officially became the Chairperson of the PPSA 24 Senate received a senate badge from the Governor of Lemhannas RI. In his remarks, Andi Widjajanto conveyed three directives to the newly installed PPSA 24 senate board. First, the PPSA 24 senate board to build lasting friendship and brotherhood. It was further emphasized that the senate's duty is to ensure that no participant of PPSA 24 were left behind. "Eighty participants join PPSA 24, so eighty participants must pass. Don't leave anyone behind," he said.

Second, PPSA 24 participants to continue to build interaction with all units of Lemhannas RI. "Help us ensure that we at Lemhannas RI can provide the facilities and services you need to participate in leadership education," he said. This is related to Lemhannas RI's commitment to constantly improve and increase the quality of services and facilities of Lemhannas RI in supporting the education of national-level leaders.

Third, PPSA 24 and PPRA 65 participants who are currently attending education simultaneously can build interactions because later they will join the Lemhannas RI's Alumni Association (IKAL).

Closing his remarks, the Governor of Lemhannas RI congratulated the PPSA 24 senate for its inauguration and expected the senate to do its duties well.

The Governor of Lemhannas RI Attends the Cabinet Meeting with the Vice President of RI

JAKARTA - The Governor of Lemhannas RI, Andi Widjajanto, accompanied by the Deputy for Strategic Studies, Prof. Dr. Ir. Reni Mayerni, M.P., attended a Cabinet meeting chaired by the Vice President of the Republic of Indonesia, Prof. Dr (Hc). K.H. Ma'ruf Amin on Wednesday (26/4), at the Vice President's Palace.

In the Cabinet meeting, Andi Widjajanto shared the results of Lemhannas RI's study regarding the Papua issue. This study successfully identifies problems in a comprehensive manner and offers recommended solutions to problems as considerations for resolving cases occurring in Papua.

According to wapresri.go.id, Vice President Prof. Dr. K. H. Ma'ruf Amin, as the Chairman of the Steering Committee for the Acceleration of Special Autonomy Development for Papua (BP3OKP) expressed his concern regarding the situation in the last two weeks, in which a number of The Indonesian Armed Forces (TNI) soldiers died while on duty in Nduga Regency, Papua Highlands Province due to acts of violence from the Armed Criminal Group (KKB) in the region. "I call for everyone to be ready to handle special cases in the Papua region," he said.

Ma'ruf Amin believes that the the TNI Commander and the National Police Chief have conducted operations evaluation and reinforced strategic steps. However, apart from taking a security approach, he also reminds all stakeholders to stay consistent in taking a socio-cultural and administrative-political based welfare approach to address the root causes and strategic issues in the six provinces in Papua. Furthermore, he stressed the importance of managing appropriate foreign and domestic communications, and strategic thinking studies to improve the formulation and implementation of policies on Papua in the future.

Also present at the Cabinet meeting were were the Coordinating Minister for Politics, Legal, and Security Affairs Prof. Dr. Mohammad Mahfud MD, S.H., S.U., M.I.P; Defense Minister Lieut. Gen. TNI (Ret.) Prabowo Subianto; Minister of Home Affairs Tito Karnavian;

Minister of Foreign Affairs Retno Marsudi; Finance Minister of Finance Sri Mulyani;

Presidential Chief of Staff Moeldoko; TNI Commander Admiral Yudo Margono; National Police Chief General Listyo Sigit Prabowo; and Deputy II Edmil Nurjamil and Deputy III Aswardi representing the Chief of the State Intelligence Agency.

05/2023

JAKARTA - After the 60-day audit period, BPK RI submitted the Draft of the Audit Results of Lemhannas RI's Financial Statements for the fiscal year 2022 to Lemhannas RI submitted by the Deputy in Charge 3 of the BPK RI State Finance Auditor Team IA Athur Saragi S.E., Ak., M.Sc., CSFA. to the Inspector of Lemhannas RI Police Brigadier General Drs. Djoko Poerbohadijojo, M.Sc. on Tuesday (9/5) in Nusantara III Room, Trigatra Building, 1st Floor, Lemhannas RI.

On this occasion, Djoko Poerbohadijojo expressed his gratitude and appreciated the performance of BPK RI, and apologized for any inconvenience that occurred during the examination. "Thank you for conducting the examination that can provide inputs to Lemhannas RI," he said.

As a form of financial management accountability, Lemhannas RI has been cooperative in the recent audits conducted by BPK RI. Therefore, Djoko Poerbohadijojo hopes that this well-established cooperation can continue. The results provided by the BPK RI team will also be reported to Lemhannas RI for future development.

"What we are conducting today is a sequence of procedures of our examination," Athur Saragi said when delivering his remarks. Furthermore, he also appreciated the performance of the Lemhannas RI Inspectorate.

The Draft of the Examination Results submitted today will become the Examination Results Report which will be given to Lemhannas RI later. During the process, the draft will be checked, and bring up proposed recommendations. "I hope that what we convey and do at Lemhannas RI can further advance Lemhannas RI in the future," Athur Saragi concluded.

Visit of USIP's Delegation to Lemhannas RI

Tue
05/2023

JAKARTA - The delegation of the U.S. Institute of Peace (USIP) in Washington, D.C., USIP Distinguished Fellow, China expert/specialist and top expert on the People's Liberation Army Dr. Andrew Scobell, and Senior Expert for Southeast ASIA USIP Brian Harding visited Lemhannas RI on Tuesday (9/5), at Nusantara 2 Room, First Floor of Trigatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

Governor of Lemhannas RI, Andi Widjajanto, warmly welcomed the USIP's delegation conveying that he was directed by the President RI Joko Widodo to study geopolitics especially that of Russia-Ukraine conflict, and the United States-China conflict.

In addition, Andi Widjajanto also stated that he was asked to analyze five specific issues, including democracy consolidation toward the 2024 election, digital transformation for Indonesia especially related to government and economy digital, green economy using carbon economy framework to find a new policy paradigm for Indonesia, blue economy focusing on strengthening resources, and Nusantara Capital City's development that is designed to be a smart and green city.

On this occasion, Andrew Scobell conveyed that USIP is a national and nonpartisan public institution established by the US Congress and funded by the US government with a mission to prevent, mitigate, and resolve violent conflicts throughout the world. USIP has 15 offices around the world that cover areas that should be prioritized over the last few decades.

Meanwhile, Brian Harding said that currently, USIP has a very strong China program. The USIP's approach to the China issue is in a way inconsistent with that of the US think tanks. This is because USIP sees China as a serious competitor. "So we focus on preventing war, but also not underestimating China's growing power with the central scenario that is Taiwan," he said.

During the meeting, the Governor of Lemhannas RI was accompanied by the Chief of the Public Relations Bureau of Lemhannas RI, Brigadier General Suratno, S.I.P.; the Chief of Cooperation and Legal Bureau, Commodore Deny Septiana, S.A.P., M.A.P.; and several Senior Lecturers, Senior Analysts, and Professional Experts.

Blood Donation and Screening of NIVA Medical Device as Part of Lemhannas RI's Anniversary Commemorations

05/2023

JAKARTA - As a form of social concern, Lemhannas RI organized Blood Donation and Screening of Non-Invasive Vascular Analysis (NIVA) Medical Device as part of its 58th Anniversary, on Monday (15/5) at Dwiwarna Purwa Room, Lemhannas RI. It was planned that at least 150 blood bags to be donated to PMI (Indonesian Red Cross) in DKI Jakarta Province.

In his remarks, the Governor of Lemhannas RI Andi Widjajanto highlighted the data on the need for blood in DKI Jakarta. He calculated that if the target is around 150 blood bags, it could only meet 10% of the daily need. Therefore, in his opinion, blood donation should be carried out more frequently to help meet the needs of blood at PMI DKI Jakarta Province. "Hopefully, this blood donation event can strengthen our solidarity within this society," he said.

During this event, there was a presentation regarding the NIVA medical device by the NIVA Medical Device

Manufacturer Tumpal Sihombing accompanied by the Inventor of the NIVA Medical Device Prof. Dr. Ir. Tati Latifah E.R Mengko and NIVA Medical Advisor Dr. Jetty H. Sedyawan SpJP. K FIHA, FAPSC, FasCC. This medical device is the result of a collaboration between ITB (The Bandung Institute of Technologies) and Harapan Kita Heart Hospital and has been tested for a year. Lemhannas RI has received a unit of NIVA medical device as a donation for Lemhannas RI's Clinic.
