11/2023

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI held a National Seminar with the theme "Southeast Asian Strategic Landscape in the Era of Geopolitics 5.0" on Wednesday (15/11) at the Flores Ballroom, Borobudur Hotel. This event was the last of the seminar series organized by the Deputy Office of Strategic Studies of Lemhannas RI in 2023.

This seminar was held to elaborate on the role of Southeast Asia in the global context and the state's perspective in the era of geopolitics 5.0. "I hope that this seminar can produce constructive and comprehensive ideas regarding the role and position of Southeast Asia in Geopolitics 5.0," Deputy for Strategic Studies of Lemhannas RI, Prof. Dr. Ir. Reni Mayerni, M.P. stated when reading the report.

The seminar was a dialogue and discussion forum for stakeholders to exchange information, experiences, and views on strategic issues in the Southeast Asia region. "Southeast Asia has been part of the competition for superpower influence since the 15th century," Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI, Vice Admiral Maman Firmansyah said.

Today, Southeast Asia plays a significant role in the era of geopolitics 5.0 as a strategic region and a link to the global supply chain. Therefore, Lemhannas RI considers it important to examine the geopolitical conditions of Southeast Asia by discussing the role and position of Southeast Asia in the global context and the perspectives of friendly countries towards this region in geopolitics 5.0. "I hope that we can share constructive knowledge and thoughts regarding the strategic landscape of Southeast Asia in the era of geopolitics 5.0," Maman Firmansyah concluded.

Several officials attended the seminar including the Political Counselor of the United States Embassy in Indonesia, Mr. Kyle A. Richardson; Offset and Defense Expert, Lecturer at Bina Nusantara University, Curie Maharani Savitri, Ph.D.; Deputy Ambassador of the Embassy of India in Indonesia, Mr. Basir Ahmed; Minister of Economy and Development of the Embassy of Japan in Indonesia, Mr. Ueda Hajime; and Lecturer in International Relations at Universitas Islam Internasional Indonesia, Moch Faisal Karim, Ph.D.

Lemhannas RI Holds FGD on Technology Adaptation and Innovation to Face Global Crisis

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI held a Focus Group Discussion (FGD) with the title “Socio-Cultural Resilience in Technology Adaptation and Innovation to Face Global Crisis” organized by Directorate of Socio-Cultural and Demographic Studies, on Thursday (16/11) at the Kresna Room, 5th Floor of Astagatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

“Socio-cultural resilience refers to a nation’s capability to survive and adapt to face the social and cultural pressure, crisis, or change,” Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI, Vice Admiral Maman Firmansyah started his speech.

The discussion highlighted the importance of comprehending and strengthening social and cultural factors in order to increase the society’s resilience to countless challenges. The concept of social and cultural resilience is used in various situations, such as facing global disasters or overcoming major environmental changes.

In line with these challenges, it is necessary to prepare strategic policy responses and the involvement of many states through global cooperation. Maman Firmansyah also conveyed the need for the role of the government, private sector and civil society to overcome the global crisis and the negative influence of increasingly rapid technological developments.

The FGD was moderated by Professional Expert of the Social and Cultural Study of Lemhannas

RI Dra. Dwi Hernuningsih, M.Si. Several speakers were present at the discussion, including Policy Analyst of the Coordinating Ministry for Human Development and Culture of the Republic of Indonesia, Mr. Nuswardana Sarodja, B.Eng., M.M; Vice President of Dentsu Corporate, Mr. Janoe Arijanto; Executive Director of the Social Network Analyst Center, Mr. Dr. Rendi Ananta Prasetya, S.Sos., M.H., CEO of PT. JAKARTA - Strengthening of Regional Leaders Course Program (KPPD) Lemhannas RI of 2023 that was held for three weeks were officially closed on Friday (17/11) at the Konstitusi Room, 3rd Floor of Trigatra Building, Lemhannas RI by Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI, Vice Admiral Maman Firmansyah.

The number of participants of KPPDI-1 from October 22 to November 17, 2023 was 16 people, consisting of six regents, seven mayors, and one DPRD leader. Maman Firmansyah congratulated all KPPDI-1 participants for their participation in the series of activities held at the National University of Singapore and Lemhannas RI. In addition, he said that the success of regional development is the key to the sustainable national development in order to achieve golden Indonesia in 2045.

"Therefore, the role of regional leaders is very strategic because they are drivers of development in their respective regions," Maman Firmansyah stated. He also hopes that the efforts made by Lemhannas RI collaborating with PYC, NUS and the Indonesian Ministry of Home Affairs can produce optimal results.

SINGAPORE - Singapore's Defense Minister invited the best graduates of the Short Education Program (PPSA) and the Regular Education Program (PPRA) of Lemhannas RI, led by the Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI, Police Commissioner General Drs. R.Z. Panca Putra S., M.Si. to Distinguished Graduands' Visit (DGV) program on Wednesday (22/11), and visited a number of Singapore Government facilities/agencies.

The DGV, which has been a tradition since 2012 and was temporarily suspended during the Covid-19 pandemic, is in line with one of Lemhannas RI's focal missions, namely to strengthen the values and character of national-level leaders as well as a strong importance on the military defense component.

On this occasion, Panca Putra and the best graduates of PPSA 24 and PPRA

65 visited the Singapore Civil Defense Force, Central Fire Station, and Civil Defense Heritage Gallery together with the DGV-9 participants from Lemhannas RI.

At the Central Fire Station, the participants toured the station to observe the facilities and listened to the explanation about the history of the fire service establishment in Singapore. During the visit, Senior Assistant Director LTC. Abdullah explained the development of Singapore's civil defense from the 19th century to date.

During the visit, the Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI was accompanied by the Chief of the Cooperation and Legal Bureau, Raja Erjan H.S. Girsang, S.E., M.M., M.Sc., Director of Socio-cultural and Demographic Studies of Deputy Office for Strategic Studies, Police Brigadier General Chaidir, S.H., S.I.K., M.Si., M.P.P. and two other personnel from Lemhannas RI.

Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI as Key Speaker at the IKABNAS National Webinar

JAKARTA - Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI, Vice Admiral Maman Firmansyah was present as a keynote speaker at the National Webinar initiated by the Strengthening of National Outlooks Program Alumni Association of Lemhannas (IKABNAS) with the theme “The Role of the Young Generation in Realizing Golden Indonesian Glory” on Wednesday (22/11), virtually.

Starting his presentation, Maman Firmansyah expressed his gratitude to the alumni of Lemhannas RI for organizing the event. He also hoped that the webinar can provide inspiration for the alumni and young people in educational institutions to continue dreaming and working for Indonesia. “The youth is the key human resources for sustainable development, economic development, technology innovation and agents of social change,” he stated.

Maman Firmansyah also said that the youth is also a force for the continuity of national and state existence in all aspects. Furthermore, the youth generation is creative, intense, and persistent in pursuing their goals. Speed in using the internet technology is also a characteristic of youth.

The urgency of the role of youth is increasingly necessary considering that Indonesia is currently preparing to enter the initial stage of the demographic bonus which is expected to reach its peak in 2030. Therefore, the demographic bonus must be highly regarded and supported to create a better living order.

Maman Firmansyah emphasized that if all components of the nation are equally committed, golden Indonesia may not just be a dream. “Let’s unite, build networks, support each other, and make Indonesia a nation that is proud of the achievements and potential of the brilliant young generation,” Maman Firmansyah concluded.

Several speakers attended the webinar, including the Regent of Trenggalek, Mochamad Nur Arifin; Member of the House of Representatives of the Republic of Indonesia, Puteri Anetta Komarudin; Secretary of IKABNAS, M. Abdul Basit; Influencer Aryo Seno Bagaskoro; and Founder of Yayasan Harapan Pemuda Indonesia Laila Nihayati.

Lemhannas RI Discusses Revision of Presidential Regulation Number 98 of 2016

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI held a Focus Group Discussion (FGD) to discuss the Revision of Presidential Regulation (Perpres) Number 98 of 2016 concerning Lemhannas RI on (22/11), at Nusantara 2 Room, First Floor of Trigatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

Professional Expert for Law and Human Rights of Lemhannas RI, Andrea Hynan Poeloengan, S.H., M.Hum., MTCP as the head of the Working Group stated that the discussion was a forum for exchanging ideas between stakeholders related to the condition of Lemhannas RI whose personnel come from various components.

Lemhannas RI consists of state civil apparatus (ASN), personnel of Indonesian National Armed Forces (TNI), personnel of Indonesian National Police (Polri), and professional experts consisting of retired military personnel, senior officers, professors, professionals, and former high-ranking state officials. In this regard, regulations related to the mentioned elements, such as the issuance of Law Number 20 of 2023 concerning ASN, will require adjustment in the Presidential Regulation Number 98 of 2016 so that it can accommodate the Lemhannas RI's legal umbrella.

"The revision of this Presidential Regulation concerning Lemhannas RI will have an impact on structural changes. Therefore, to avoid mistakes, we hope to receive inputs from the speakers," Andrea Hynan Poeloengan said.

Seven speakers were present at the FGD, including the Deputy Secretary for Human Resources for the Ministry of Administrative and Bureaucratic Reform, Diah Faras, S.E., M.A.P.; Director of Legislation and Regulations of National Civil Service Agency (BKN), Julia Leli Kurniati, S.H., M.H.; Head Bagjiansis Rojianstra SSDM Polri, Police Grand Commissioner Dirin, S.I.K., M.H.; Paban II/Bindik Spers TNI, Colonel Adm Mukhtar Bakhrong, S.E., M.M., M.Han.; Paban II/Minanev Spersad, Colonel Inf Gunawan Permadi, S.E., M.A.P.; Paban III/Binkar Spersau, Colonel Adm Rober Simanjuntak, S.AP.; Paban IV/Binkar Spersal, Colonel Laut (P) Rakhmat Arif Bintoro, M.Han., CHRMP.

Lemhannas RI Holds FGD on Resolving Education and Health Problems in Papua

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI, through the Directorate of Defense, Security and Geography Studies, held a Focus Group Discussion (FGD) with the title "Searching for Solutions to Education and Health Problems in Papua" on Monday (27/11) in the Kresna Room, Astagatra Building, 4th Floor, Lemhannas RI.

Deputy for Strategic Studies Prof. Dr. Ir. Reni Mayerni, M.P. in her report said that the FGD was held to find ways to find solutions to education and health problems in Papua.

Meanwhile, Vice Admiral Maman Firmansyah in his speech said that education and health are two fundamental pillars in human development. "The quality of education and health determines the quality of human resources and ultimately determines the progress of a nation," he said.

Papua is one of the provinces that is still lagging behind in the fields of education and health, where the school dropout rate is still high, and the quality of educational facilities and infrastructure is still inadequate. Meanwhile, in the health sector, maternal and child mortality rates in Papua are still high and community access to health services is still limited. Therefore, a thorough investigation is necessary to identify and analyze the source of the current problem, as well as the steps necessary to find an effective solution.

The FGD moderated by the Director of Defense and Security Studies and Geography of Lemhannas RI Air Firs Marshal Rolland D.G. Waha, was attended by several speakers such as the Deputy Territorial Assistant (Waaster) to the TNI Commander Vice Admiral Dr. Suharto, M.Si., M.Han., Council of the Innovation and Transformation Teamwork and Cross-Program Cooperation of the Indonesian Ministry of Education and Culture, Dr. Sugiyanto, Young Expert Planner at the Planning and Budget Bureau of the Indonesian Ministry of Health Mr. Ermawan, S.K., M.M.P.H., Researcher in Sociology Education at BRIN RI Anggi Afriansyah, M.Sc., and Executive Director of Intelligence and National Security Studies (INSS) and Papua Researcher Dr. Stepi Anriani, M.Sc.

Lemhannas RI Holds FGD on Indonesian Domestic Politics Outlook in 2024

28
11/2023

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI, through the Directorate of Ideological and Political Studies, held a Focus Group Discussion (FGD) with the title "Indonesia's Domestic Political Outlook for 2024" on Tuesday (28/11), in the Kresna Room, Astagatra Building, 4th Floor, Lemhannas RI.

In his remarks, the Principal Secretary of Lemhannas RI, Police Commissioner General Drs. R.Z. Panca Putra S., M.Sc. said that Indonesia will enter the 2024 political year which will be marked by simultaneous general elections (pemilu) to elect the president and vice president, legislative members and regional heads.

"The 2024 simultaneous elections are an important moment for Indonesian democracy because they are a means of electing leaders who will determine the direction of the nation's future," Panca Putra said. Apart from that, the general election will also determine the direction and policies of Indonesia's domestic politics for the next five years.

The 2024 political year is marked by dynamic domestic political conditions, including the electoral system, party coalitions, presidential and vice presidential candidates and various strategic issues and voter participation. These political dynamics will of course influence a number of other aspects, namely domestic security, the promotion of human rights, the Indonesian economy and the consolidation of democracy.

In line with this, it is important to understand and analyze the domestic political outlook in 2024 from various perspectives and points of view. "We hope that this discussion can become a forum for conducting studies and predictions on the influence of domestic political dynamics on these various aspects," Panca Putra said.

The FGD was moderated by Professional Staff for Geostrategy and National Resilience at Lemhannas RI, Dr. Margaretha Hanita, S.H., M.Si., attended by a number of speakers, namely Deputy III of the Indonesian Presidential Staff Office, Dr. Ir. Edy Priyono, M.E., Political Director of Baintelkam Polri Police Brigadier General Drs. Yuda Gustawan, S.I.K., S.H., M.H., Deputy Chair for Internal Affairs of Komnas HAM Mr. Pramono Ubaid Tanthowi, S.Ag. M.A., and Research Fellow at the Center for Political Studies (Puskapol) University of Indonesia Mr. Panji Anugrah Permana, Ph.D.

Idol, and Lemhannas Master Chef. This series of activities involved all Lemhannas RI personnel, including the The Indonesia Military (TNI) and The National Police (POLRI) personnels.

Acting Governor of Lemhannas RI Vice Admiral Maman Firmansyah in his speech hoped that KORPRI Lemhannas RI could be more successful, advanced and upholding the Panca Prasetya KORPRI. He also expressed his appreciation for the hard work of the entire committee in organizing the event.

The 52nd anniversary of KORPRI this year is being celebrated ahead of the simultaneous general elections (pemilu) and regional head elections (pilkada) in 2024. "So all members, especially KORPRI Lemhannas RI, need to pay attention to take action and be neutral," Maman Firmansyah emphasized.

Maman Firmansyah reminded that if the election is not carried out according to the provisions by maintaining neutrality for ASN, TNI and POLRI, it is feared that it could cause disunity in society. Furthermore, he called on Lemhannas RI personnel to participate in informing the public or residents in their respective regions so that people who are determined to be neutral can remain neutral

After delivering his speech, the event continued with the cutting the top of the tumpeng (a cone-shaped serving of yellow rice accompanied by assorted side dishes) and the farewell of 17 retired officials. The event was also enlivened by the announcement of the competition winners, the drawing of door prizes and grand prizes as well as the performance of the winners of the Line Dance and Lemhannas Idol competitions.

JAKARTA - Chairman of the People's Consultative Assembly of the Republic of Indonesia (MPR RI) Dr. H. Bambang Soesatyo, S.E., S.H., M.B.A. had the opportunity to give a lecture to participants in the Strengthening of National Values Program of Lemhannas RI Smandel (SMAN 8) Jakarta Business Network (SBN), the Indonesian Mastermind Association CEO (ACMI), and the Indonesia Financial Group (IFG) in 2023 on Monday (4/12), at the Gajah Mada Auditorium, Lemhannas RI.

In his lecture, Bambang Soesatyo explained about "Business Integration and National Resilience in Building an Advanced Indonesia". He said that the various advances that have occurred today have brought many conveniences as well as extraordinary challenges. This is something worth paying attention to because if not, it is feared that it will weaken Indonesian national values and values that exist in the identity of Indonesia.

"Therefore, the program to strengthen national values that you are holding today is an effort that we must appreciate and support together to realign national orientation to our national goals as implemented by the constitution," Bambang Soesatyo said. Apart from that, he hopes that this program will be an effort to maintain the integrity of the nation in the future.

Furthermore, Bambang Soesatyo defines advanced Indonesia from various parameters and points of view. First, a minimum per capita income of 11,906 US Dollars which must be accompanied by a low poverty rate must exist in Indonesia.

Then the second is guaranteed security with a low crime rate and a high-tech state security defense system. Then the third is adequate health facilities and personnel, as well as a low death rate and high life expectancy.

At the end of his presentation, Bambang Soesatyo stated that to make Indonesia developed, economic growth must be driven by the business sector. To accelerate economic growth, national resilience must be supported by creating a safe and stable environment.

Make 2024 Election a Success, Lemhannas RI Promotes Neutrality Monitoring of ASN, TNI and POLRI

12/2023

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI, through the Cooperation and Legal Bureau, organized a socialization on Legal and Legislation Awareness Building with the theme of neutrality monitoring of state civil apparatus (ASN), Indonesian National Armed Forces (TNI), Indonesian National Police (Polri) in the 2024 simultaneous elections on Wednesday (6/12) at the Syailendra Room, 3rd Floor of Astagatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

“The neutrality of ASN, TNI and POLRI is the key to the success of election as an event for democratic celebration in Indonesia, especially facing the 2024 election,” Prime Secretary of Lemhannas RI, Police Commissioner General Drs. R.Z. Panca Putra S., M.Si.

stated in his speech. The 2024 election will be different from previous elections because it consists of presidential election, legislative election, and regional heads election.

Panca Putra emphasized to all Lemhannas RI personnel to participate in making the 2024 election a success by maintaining their neutrality as a form of responsibility in upholding the reputation of the institution. Furthermore, Lemhannas RI keeps monitoring its personnel so that no one gets caught up in political currents.

The legal basis for ASN neutrality is the Law Number 20 of 2023 in article 2 (f), 9 paragraph 2, and 24 paragraph 1. Meanwhile the neutrality for the TNI and POLRI is regulated in Law Number 34 of 2004 article 39 and Law Number 28 of 2008 paragraphs 1 and 2 which state that practical politics is not permitted.

Panca Putra hoped that the socialization, which presented the Head of the Election Process Dispute Resolution Facilitation Bureau of Indonesian Election Supervisory Agency Election (Bawaslu) RI, Drs. Harimurti Wicaksono, M.Han. as a speaker, can enrich the understanding regarding the implementation of the 2024 election and can make Lemhannas RI's personnel stay neutral to maintain the reputation of Lemhannas RI.

The Academy of Military Sciences Delegation of CPLA China Visits Lemhannas RI

Mon

JAKARTA - Lemhannas RI received a visit from The Academy of Military Sciences Delegation of CPLA China at Nusantara 2 Room on Monday, 11 December 2023. The visit was led by the Head of Department Major General Qian Youwu who was accompanied by six other delegates along with the Deputy Defense Attaché of the Chinese Embassy in Indonesia in Jakarta.

During the visit, the delegation was received by Professional Expert for International Relations and Diplomacy of Lemhannas RI, Edy Prasetyono, S.Sos., MIS., Ph.D., who represented the leaders of Lemhannas RI. On that occasion, Edy Prasetyono delivered a presentation regarding the security situation in Southeast Asia and related issues.

He also conveyed the security situation within a state and security problems occurring on an extra-regional scale. From an internal perspective, he explained separatism and internal conflicts such as those that occurred in the Philippines, Myanmar and Indonesia.

Furthermore, Edy Prasetyono explained the issues of democracy and human rights that still occur to the Rohingya tribe. Non-traditional security problems such as climate change, natural disasters, health problems, and energy problems cannot be neglected. Meanwhile, security issues on an extra-regional scale include the conflict between the United States and China, the territorial borders of the South China Sea, proxy wars, and the condition of ASEAN.

“We do not want ASEAN to become an instrument of proxy war from external powers. Therefore, ASEAN unity and centrality are the keys to regional stability and security,” Edy Prasetyono added.

Also present on this occasion were the Head of the Foreign Cooperation Division of Cooperation and Legal Bureau Lemhannas RI, Colonel Mar. Dr. Agus Salim; Head of Subdirector of Study Evaluation and Documentation of Directorate of Study Program and Development of Deputy Office for Strategic Studies Lemhannas RI Colonel Czi Sriyanto, M.I.R., M.A.; and the Head Information Division of Public Relations Bureau of Lemhannas RI, Colonel Mar. Kussyuwono, S.H.
