Lemhannas RI conducts animal slaughtering to celebrate Idul Adha

Governor of Lemhannas RI Lt. Gen. (Ret) opened the animal slaughtering event on Thursday (23/8) to celebrate Idul Adha on Wednesday (22/8).

In his remark, Agus Widjojo stated that Idul Adha is an historical day for human beings since at that time Prophet Ibrahim, Siti Hajar, and Prophet Ismail has been given a fundamental exemplary such as the haj and animal slaughtering.

The event, Agus Widjojo explained, remind moslems to follow what had been done by prophet Ibrahim Alaihissalam who sacrifice only for God.

“To obey God’s command, Prophet Ismail sacrifice his soul and body as a form his obedience to his parent (Prophet Ibrahim Alaihissalam) and also to God,” Agus Widjojo explained.

From tha event, moslem are expected to make slaughtering as strong form of faith and sincerely to sacrifice which is signed by conducting animal slaughtering.

With a theme “Through Celebration of Idul Adha, We Strengthen our Solidarity as an Implementation of our Faith”, contained the meaning of animal slaughtering where the faith triggers moslems to distribute meat in small portions as a symbol of strengthen solidarity among diversity in the society.

In the end of his remark, Agus Widjojo said Happy Idul Adha 1439 H / 2018 M.” Happy Idul Adha 1439 H / 2018 M and I hope the animal slaughtering and for moslems who are doing the haj run well and come back to Indonesia safely,” Agus Widjojo said.

The event was then continued with animal slaughtering and delivery of small portions of the meat to the society.

In August 23 and 24, 2018, PPRA (Regular Education Program Batch) 57 participants reported the result of SSLN (Overseas Studies) to Poland, Hungary, Romania, and Turkey which was conducted from August 13 to August 16, 2018.

SSLN itself is a major activity in education program which aims to enrich the participants knowledge in making policy in the future. SSLN means to equip the PPR participants about the real condition of a country visited so they can have comprehensive and integral way of thinking and identify strategic issues to be used as a consideration in arranging strategic conception for national interest.

In conducting SSLN in each country, PPRA 57 participants who were divided into four groups, visited The Indonesian Embassy in each country, Government institutions, Tourism Center and several strategic industry to get a complete portrait of the country visited in Astagatra Perception, history of the country establishment and bilateral relationship prospect.

Based on the SSLN report, Indonesia need to strengthen and boost cooperation in various aspects with those four countries visited. Like Hungary which is located in the heart of Europe is famous as the biggest electronic product importer so it becomes the most influential market in Middle and East Europe. Therefore, Indonesia need to build its relationship with those European countries with strongest market to strengthen cooperation.

Meanwhile Romania, whose economy is now increasing, has a chance to cooperate with Indonesia in various aspects related to demography, geography, and natural resources and also the increase of productive age which is called as "demography bonus". Besides, Romania which is also a world trade partner along with Indonesia, are interested in improving cooperation in tourism aspect and in strengthening diplomatic role related to politic, economy, and defense industry.

In the other hand, the bilateral relationship between Turkey and Indonesia over the last few years has an excellent prospect which is shown from each country's role in the region. The relationship of both countries get an intensive support which is shown by the amount of visitation between both countries. One of several cooperation agreement between Turkey and Indonesia is IT-CEPA agreement which involve Turkey and Indonesia. Both countries focus on five major aspects such as electrical energy, trade, aerospace, defense industry, and counter-terrorism.

The last, the relationship between Poland and Indonesia has gone well since 1955 without any significant problem and obstacle and it tends to increase. Poland said that Indonesia has important role and influence in international order especially in ASEAN and huge organizations like United Nations, G-20, and APEC.

Poland and Indonesia are both democratic countries located in in world power intersection. Poland as a democracy pioneer in East Europe can be a potential partner for Indonesia in developing democratic values. In developing democracy, both countries have credential as democratic pioneer in their own region, Poland in East Europe and Indonesia in ASEAN.

Dr. Steven Barraclough: Indonesia is Australia's 13th Largest Trade Partner

Dr. Steven Barraclough, Minister of Economic Counselors for Economic, Investment and Infrastructure of the Australian Embassy for Indonesia gave a general lecture to the participants of PPRA 57 and 58 on 10 September 2018 at Gajah Mada Room, Lemhannas RI Pancagatra Building, Jakarta.

Presenting the material titled "What's with the Australia-Indonesia Economic Partnership", Barraclough explain the collaboration between Indonesia and Australia in the framework of Indonesia Australia - Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (IA-CEPA) signed by the leaders of the two countries on August 31 2018 Bogor Palace, West Java.

"The old paradigm has changed, and is now known as the Indo Pacific concept, where Asia is the center. We witness the most fundamental changes in the global economy in 200 years. Our region (Australia), the Indo-Pacific, is now the cornerstone of the global economy. At the same time, unprecedented technological changes create new opportunities and present unique risks," Barraclough said, quoting Scott Morrison, Australian PM.

Indonesia is Australia's 13th largest trading partner with a total two-way trade worth nearly 16.5 billion AUD in 2017. Indonesia's largest export to Australia is in the tourism sector (personal travel) of 3.042 million AUD and crude oil worth 802 million AUD. While Australia's largest export to Indonesia was wheat valued at 1.263 million AUD and the education sector at 802 million AUD.

IA-CEPA has been negotiated since November 2010. With the signing of the IA-CEPA, it will open new markets and opportunities in various sectors including the Australian education sector, the opening of Australian university campuses in Jakarta, as well as businesses, major producers, service providers and investors.

Lemhannas RI Work Unit Application System (SAS) Training

"The SAS application was launched in 2015, making it a Single Database application with the intention of facilitating work unit in financial management", Head of Finance Division Colonel Cku Andi Tjarwandi, S.E. said in his speech representing the Chief of the Planning and Finance Bureau of Principal Secretariat Lemhannas RI in the opening of Lemhannas RI Work Unit Application System (SAS) Training at BKT Hotel and Resort, Bogor, Thursday (13/9).

Andi Tjarwandi added, the event was carried out because the utilization of the application that was the responsibility of Commitment Making Officer (PPK) was still carried out centrally in the Payment Instruction Signing Officer (PPSPM) operator. This is due to the limited facilities and infrastructure as well as the readiness of human resources for the Work Unit Application System.

The two-day activity presented resource person from the Directorate of Information Systems and Treasury Technology of the Directorate General of Treasury of the Ministry of Finance Agus Santoso and Bambang Sugiharto.

Besides learning theories regarding related financial applications,

20 participants consist of representatives and financial operators of the work unit, will practice how to operate the application and be given a simulation of problems that they may encountered while using the application.

At the end of his speech, Andi Tjarwandi said that through these activities it is hoped that in Financial Year of 2019 the PPK could carry out the recording and issuance of Payment Request Letter (SPP) and supervise the implementation of the budget in each work unit using the SAS application in accordance with applicable regulations.

Lecture for PPRA 57 Participants Wives/Husbands

Lemhannas RI held a Lecture for PPRA (Regular Education Program Batch) 57 from September 10 to September 18, 2018.

Deputy of National-Level Leader Education Maj. Gen. Karsiyanto in his report said that the wives/husbands training was attended by 95 participants consist of 88 wives and 7 husbands of PPRA 57 participants. This lecture, Karsiyanto explained, aims to equip and strengthen the role of the wives / husbands in assisting national level cadres, to increase ethics knowledge for wives and husbands who can be role models for the extended family, work environment, and society, and also to strengthen the relationship among fellow wives / husbands participating in the PPRA 57 and also with Lemhannas.

In his remarks, Agus Widjojo said that the Indonesia's current situation illustrates the tendency of global cultural influences and political dynamics that affect the aspects in the society. This, Agus Widjojo explained, will affect the spirit of nationality, family relationship that is full of tolerance and togetherness.

The tendency needs to be addressed wisely. Agus Widjojo added that the existence of a national understanding that prioritizes national unity is needed.

Therefore, through this lecture, the wives/husbands as partners of national leaders cadres are expected to be able to understand more deeply regarding the meaning of national morality and ethics which can then be implemented in their mindset, and attitude in daily life.

"The of this lecture is to prepare the wives / husbands in helping their partner in the official relationship and in the social life," Agus Widjojo said.

PPRA 57 holds National Seminar

PPRA 57 held a National Seminar on "Structuring Political Parties to Strengthen the Presidential Administration System in Indonesia" in Dwi Warna Purwa Room, Lemhannas RI, Jakarta (13/9).

The seminar presented Minister of Home Affair Tjahjo Kumolo as keynote speaker, Academician Prof. Dr. Jimly Asshiddique, S.H., with a responder from Airlangga University Prof. Drs. Ramlan Surbakti, M.A., Ph.D., member of Commission II of the House of Representatives Zainudin Amali, S.E., and as an responder from LIPI Prof. Dr. Syamsudin Haris, M.Sc., Special Committee for Political Law Dr. Ir. Muhammad Lukman Edy, M.Sc., Professor of IPDN Prof. Dr. Djohermansyah Johan, M.A., and Editor in Chief of Kompas Budiman Tanuredjo.

On the occasion, Governor of Lemhannas RI, Lt. Gen. (Ret) Agus Widjojo said that the participants' success in organizing seminars was essentially an indicator of participants in absorbing and understanding various materials while attending the education program at Lemhannas RI.

"the participants have given their best in this strategic seminar by using their holistic, integral, and comprehensive way of thinking especially in structuring political parties to strengthen the presidential administration system in Indonesia," Governor of Lemhannas said in front of then participants

Agus Widjojo then stated that based on the results of the seminar that had been formulated, it could be concluded that the arrangement of political parties and the presidential government system in Indonesia had not shown optimal strengthening.

On the occasion, Tjahjo Kumolo conveyed, there were three key successes for Regional Election namely political participation from the society, rejected money politics (no money politics), and campaign of ideas and work programs. "Election participants are expected to not raising issues related to ethnicity, religion, race, hoaxes, or those related to spreading hatred," Tjahjo said.

Governor of Lemhannas RI emphasizes 4 things in PPRA 57 Closing Ceremony

Governor of Lemhannas RI, Lt. Gen. (Ret) Agus Widjojo officially closed the Regular Education Program (PPRA) 57 Lemhannas RI, on Thursday (20/9), in the Dwi Warna Purwa Room, Lemhannas RI.

In his remarks, Agus Widjojo congratulated the success of PPRA 57 participants for enrolling seven months of education. "Allow all levels of Lemhannas RI to share the happiness felt by the entire family of PPRA 57 alumni, and congratulated the alumni for their successful completion of their learning assignments in PPRA 57. The PPRA 57 participants now legitimately leave the participant title and replace it with Lemhannas RI alumni."

Agus Widjojo also expressed his appreciation to all 57 PPRA participants who have shown their dedication, patience, sincerity, perseverance, and commitment during the education program.

With the end of PPRA 57 which was attended by 100 participants from the Military, Police, Bureaucrats, Political Parties, Academicians, Mass Organization and various other components of society, Agus Widjojo placed great hope on all participants who now hold PPRA 57 alumni to be able to implement all knowledge and insight gained during education program through holistic, comprehensive, integral and systemic understanding and way of thinking.

According to Agus Widjojo, the end of education should be a "commencement day" which means the beginning of devotion, compared to "graduation" which is often interpreted as the end of the education period. Agus Widjojo added that the meaning "commencement" is to be oriented towards devotion in the future which is operationally effective, therefore the period of education is the investment period in preparation for devotion.

Closing his remarks, Agus Widjojo reminded and emphasize a number of things. First, PPRA 57 alumni who are national-level leadership cadres must be able to become a role model, for the
