Opening of Taplai HIPMI batch V

Lemhannas RI held Strengthening of National Values Program for The Association of Young Indonesian Businesspeople (HIPMI) which was officially opened by Governor of Lemhannas RI Lt. Gen. (Ret) Agus Widjojo on Monday (8/10) in Pancasila Room, Trigatra Building, 3rd Floor, Lemhannas RI.

The head of HIPMI, Bahlil Lahadalia, said in his remarks that the opportunity given to HIPMI members to be able to follow the Strengthening of National Values Program up to the 5th batch was very valuable. Bahlil Lahadalia considers the strengthening program that lasts for seven days as a very important program because young entrepreneurs need to be equipped with strong nationalism in carrying out their role in society.

In the opening ceremony, Agus Widjojo in his remarks welcomed the participants. "On this occasion I would like to welcome the participants of the Strengthening of National Values Program. It is an honor for Lemhannas to be able to share and enlighten the participants on national values," Agus Widjojo said.

Agus Widjojo said that global development due to competition between countries including in the economic field is happening. This should be faced together by all national stakeholders, including HIPMI members. In the midst of this economic competition, the crisis of nationalism among the youth faded. Therefore, the young generation must have a good understanding of national values with the spirit of nationalism, including HIPMI members.

"It is very important for HIPMI members to follow this strengthening program so that they can implement national values in daily life as a form of responsibility to the nation," Agus Widjojo explained.

Also attending the Opening Ceremony were Deputy Governor Air Marshal Bagus Puruhito, Principal Secretary of Police Commissioner General Drs. Mochamad Iriawan, S.H., M.M., M.H., and a number of other structural and functional officials of Lemhannas RI. This opening ceremony was attended by 75 participants.

Related to national awareness, Agus Widjojo said that we must be aware of all forms of challenges, threats, obstacles, and disturbances that disrupt the nation's ideology.

Then, Agus Widjojo explained about the aspects used to find out Indonesia's national resilience level. The aspects are divided into two types ; dynamic and static. The aspects that are relatively static which is called as Trigatra, Agus Widjojo explained, is a geography, natural resources, and demographic. Whereas relatively dynamic aspects are ideology, politics, economics, socio-cultural, and defense security which is called Pancasila.

The lecture was then continued with a discussion on Pancasila, the 1945 Constitution and the latest national issues.

Agus Widjojo Inaugurates several Lemhannas Officials

“Inaugurations and position changing are done through mechanisms and considerations based on the needs of the organization by paying attention to qualifications, competencies, and performance,” Governor of Lemhannas RI, Lt. Gen. (Ret) Agus Widjojo said in the Inauguration Lemhannas Officials in Trigatra Building, Lemhannas RI, Thursday (11/10).

Agus Widjojo said that the inauguration in an organization was not only an honor, but also a mandate, a challenge and a test. “To the officials inaugurated today, I expect you to carry out this mandate seriously, sincerely and with full sense of responsibility by doing the best for Lemhannas,” Agus Widjojo said.

Meanwhile, Agus Widjojo said that the release of officials to be transferred from the Lemhannas was an honor because the officials had devoted themselves and carried out their duties earnestly in Lemhannas.

In connection with the positions changing at Lemhannas RI, Agus Widjojo also said that Lemhannas in 2018 had carried out assessments for Echelon IV officials and the results of the assessment would be taken into consideration in positions changing and employees career development. In addition, Lemhannas RI is also carrying out the procurement of candidates for civil servants, as well as open selection for the position of Deputy for Strategic Studies.

“This is the implementation of the merit system in accordance with the mandate of Law Number 5 of 2014 about the state civil apparatus, where policies and management are carried out competitively, free from intervention and fair,” Agus Widjojo said.

Closing his remarks, Agus Widjojo expressed his gratitude and high appreciation to the officials who were transferred to other institutions.

Ahead of the Jakarta Geopolitical Forum, Lemhannas RI Holds Communication Forum

Ahead of the Jakarta Geopolitical Forum for the second time in 2018, with the theme “Mapping The Future of Geopolitics” which will be held on October 24, 2018 in Jakarta., Lemhannas RI held a Communication Forum with Mass Media Editor-in-Chiefs at the Trigatra Building, 3rd Floor, Lemhannas RI (15/10).

Governor of Lemhannas RI, Lt. Gen. (Ret) Agus Widjojo, when opening the event said that the implementation of JGF was a form of the existence of Lemhannas in the global arena, as one of the institutions in Indonesia that studies geopolitics.

“It is expected that the results of the Jakarta Geopolitical Forum in 2018 can provide recommendations to the government regarding the geopolitical dynamics, both at the national, regional and global levels that occur and of course will have an influence on national development,” Agus Widjojo said.

In addition, Prof. Dadan Umar Daihani as Steering Committee Chairman of the Jakarta Geopolitical Forum 2018 stated that there are three main issues to be raised in JGF 2018, namely Trade War Issues, OBOR / BRI Issues, and Indo Pacific Issues. “JGF is expected to be able to provide the mapping of the future geopolitics, in an unpredictable situation, which we must see what will happen and where should we stand,” Prof. Dadan said.

Those three issues will be the focus and see its impact on the world. JGF will be a forum for Geopolitics experts and academicians from all around the world, to become a forum for discussion, and to give an input for the development of Indonesia’s resilience, both at national, regional and international levels. This is a step to provide recommendations for Indonesia in the midst of world uncertainty, as well as a discussion for Scenario Indonesia 2045.

Besides JGF, Agus Widjojo also talked about hoax or post truth era in the midst of the rapid development of current information and communication technology and socio-political dynamics in Indonesia. According to him, information does not always contained factual truth values. A lot of information is still in doubt. This is a characteristic of the post truth era phenomenon which tends to emphasize opinions and interpretations of existing facts.

While other speakers, Chief Commissioner of Police Drs. Raden Martono Sindhu, M.Sc. Senior Analyst for Science and Technology of Lemhannas RI said that currently, the society often reveals a thing called hoax and post truth, even without any supporting data. The hoax spread is believed to be the truth.

“And if we allow one lie continuously build collective perceptions and gradually form a collective nature and mass destruction and war that will occur. The mass destruction and war that caused by hoax and post truth,” Sindhu explained.

Also attending the forum were LPP TVRI President Director Helmy Yahya, CNN Indonesia President Director Titin Rosmasari, chief representatives, and journalists and a number of structural and functional officials of Lemhannas RI.

Synergy between Lemhannas RI and three institutions through the signing of MoU

Governor of Lemhannas RI Lt. Gen. (Ret) Agus Widjojo signed Memorandum of Understanding with Minister of Home Affairs Tjahjo Kumolo, Chairperson of the National Commission on Violence Against Women (Komnas Perempuan) Azriana RM, SH, and Chairperson of the Indonesian Notary Association Yualita Widyadhari in Nusantara Room, Trigatra Building Lemhannas RI, on Monday (15/10).

The Memorandum of Understanding with these three institutions includes improving the quality of human resources through education and training, exchanging experts / academics and strengthening national values, exchanging information in the context of measuring national resilience, conducting strategic studies and other fields according to the needs agreed by the parties in accordance with the applicable legislation.

“In particular, with the Ministry of Home Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia, we agree in conducting studies and research, the exchange of experts for assessment, information and technology support in the context of measuring national resilience,” Agus Widjojo said.

The Memorandum of Understanding with the Ministry of Home Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia and Komnas Perempuan is an extension of the previous Memorandum of Understanding that has expired. Meanwhile, the Memorandum of Understanding with the Indonesian Notary Association is a form of joint commitment to establish cooperation. The Indonesian Lemhannas and Komnas Perempuan agreed on strengthening the perspectives of human rights and women’s constitutional rights on education, strategic studies, and strengthening national values aspects.

The commitment and synergy of Lemhannas together with the three institutions are expected to be one of the joint efforts in strengthening nationality insights in supporting the realization of strong national resilience.

Lecture for Wives / Husbands of PPRA 58 Participants

Lemhannas RI held Lecture for the Wives / Husbands of Participants of Regular Education Program (PPRA) batch 58 which was held for six days from October 19 and ended on October 26 at the Gajah Mada Auditorium, Lemhannas RI.

After opening the Lecture for Wives / Husbands, Deputy Governor of Lemhannas RI, Bagus Puruhito, S.E., M.M. giving ice breaking and welcome greetings to the husbands / wives. Bagus Puruhito said the aim of the lecture was to improve insight and knowledge of wives / husbands in line with the development of insight and knowledge and the PPRA 58 participants horizon.

The success of the Lemhannas RI participants in pursuing careers and carrying out the duties of the state from time to time will not be possible without the role of the wives / husbands as a companion. Therefore, it is fitting that the harmony of the husband and wife continues to be maintained, through insight, morality, and ethics enrichment.

Through this training, 92 wives and 6 husband of PPRA 58 participant who are companions of national leader cadres can understand more deeply the meaning of national morality and ethics which can then be implemented in their mindset, attitude, and patterns of action in daily life.

“The essence of this lecture is to prepare the wives / husbands in helping the husband / wife in doing their duties in the state, nation, and social life,” Bagus Puruhito said.

Bagus hoped this lecture can be utilized as well as possible. “Smart-understanding of knowledge and experience in Lemhannas and between husband / wife themselves because it is very important in facing the challenges in our life to come.” Bagus said.

Visiting Jordan, Agus Widjojo Signs MoU between Lemhannas RI with RJNDC

Governor of Lemhannas Lt. Gen. (Ret) Agus Widjojo visited Jordan to sign Memorandum of Understanding between Lemhannas RI and The Royal Jordanian National Defense College (RJNDC) on Wednesday (17/10). The Memorandum of Understanding was signed by Lt. Gen. (Ret) Agus Widjojo and Brig. Gen. Abdullah S. AlShdaift.

In his remarks, Agus Widjojo said that Lemhannas is a leading government institution that also acts as a government Think Tank. Lemhannas RI, Agus Widjojo explained, has held national-level leaders education since 1965. Lemhannas RI also continues to strive to become a world-class national education institution.

In connection with this matter, Agus Widjojo said that since 2009, Lemhannas received education participants from friendly countries and had received nine participants from Jordan to take part in the Regular Education Program at Lemhannas RI.

Regarding the relationship between Indonesia and Jordan, Agus Widjojo explained that the two countries had established cooperation since 1950. "Indonesia and Jordan have established cooperative relations since 1950 and since then there have been many collaborations carried out in various fields," Agus Widjojo explained.

Agus Widjojo hopes that with this visit, Lemhannas and RJNDC can work together, especially in fields that have been agreed upon in the Memorandum of Understanding such as joint studies, expert staff exchanges, joint seminars, and other cooperation written in the Memorandum of Understanding.

Before closing his remarks, Agus Widjojo hoped that the signing of this Memorandum of Understanding could be a place to share experiences and knowledge. "I hope that through this Memorandum of Understanding, we can exchange experiences and knowledge to improve cooperation between the two institutions," Agus Widjojo concluded.
