He gave a presentation regarding various efforts and action plans that were, are and will be conducted by Lemhannas RI to become an education and research institution with world-class quality, efficiency and effectiveness as well as inward-looking and outward-looking characters.

The consultative meeting was a response to the desire expressed by the President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono at the inauguration of the Governor of Lemhannas RI on 17 February 2011, and during an audience between the Governor and the President on 5 August 2011, that Lemhannas RI should become a world-class institution.

The meeting was also a response to the direction and expectation conveyed by the Vice President during the briefing of the PPRA XLVI participants at the Vice Presidential Palace on 17 November 2011.

The vice president expected that Lemhannas RI should examine the development of the strategic environments at home and abroad that could affect the national life, such as the issues of globalization, democracy, nationalism and leadership.

FIJI AMBASSADOR'S COURTESY CALL TO LEMHANNAS RI'S GOVERNOR

On December 22, 2011 at 11:00 A.M. the Governor of Lemhannas RI, who was accompanied by the Head of Public Relations Bureau and the Head of Cooperation Bureau of the Principal Secretary's Office of Lemhannas RI, received a Courtesy Call of the Republic of Fiji Islands Ambassador to Indonesia H.E. S. T. Cavuilati, with the purpose to nominate a Fiji participant for the coming PPRA educational course.

On the occasion, the ambassador, who was accompanied by the embassy's Second Secretary Pauliasi Tokasaya, in the governor's guest-room expressed his gratitude to the governor for the invitation to attend the national seminar held by Lemhannas RI on 13 December 2011 and the closing ceremony of the PPRA XLVI which took place on December 16, 2011. The ambassador also expressed the purpose of his visit, which was to propose, again, a participant for the next PPRA educational course from his country. Previously, a Fiji's Police Commissioner Sakeasi Tamani has completed his PPRA XLVI educational course in Lemhannas RI.

Fiji is a small archipelagic country. Like Indonesia, it is also multi-ethnic and multi-religious. The courtesy call was expected to bring the relationship between Indonesia and the Republic of Fiji Islands closer. The courtesy call ended at 11:30 P.M. with a joint photo session of the governor and the ambassador.

ALGERIAN AMBASSADOR'S COURTESY CALL

The Governor of Lemhannas RI received a Courtesy Call from the Ambassador of the Democratic People's Republic of Algeria to Indonesia, H.E. Abdelkrim Belarbi (22/12/2011) at the governor's guest-room.

The purpose of the courtesy call was for the Ambassador to formally introduce himself to the governor and conveyed an invitation to the latter to be a speaker on the campus of the Algerian War Staff College in March 2012.

The governor on the occasion was accompanied by the Head of Public Relations Bureau and Head of Cooperation Bureau, while the Ambassador by the Director of the War Staff College Major General Khaloui Nouredine.

For the PPRA XLVIII educational course that will be started in March 2012, Algeria has sent two participants who currently follow the Language Education and Training at the Ministry of Defence of the Republic of Indonesia.

Apart from explaining the history of Lemhannas RI, the governor also gave information on the Peacekeeping Center in Sentul, Bogor, as one of the places that the ambassador may want to visit with the facilitation of Lemhannas RI.

On the occasion, the ambassador conveyed that Algeria would like to learn from Indonesia's experiences in terms of peacekeeping.

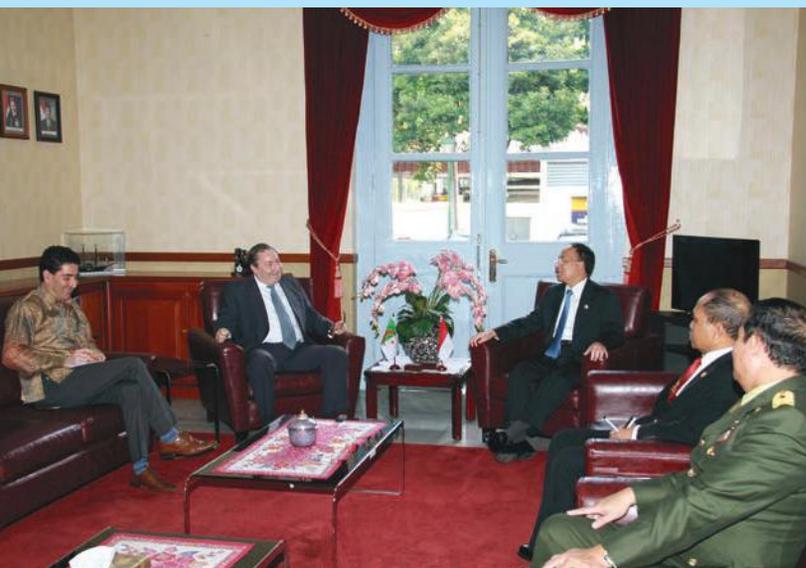

The historical relationship between Indonesia and Algeria has been initiated since the days of the struggle of the Algerian people. The Algerian people seized the independence from the French colonials (1954-1962).

When Indonesia served as the host and chairman of the Asian-African Conference in Bandung in 1955, it invited the representatives of the Algerian National Liberation Front to attend the conference as observers.

Both parties expected that a closer cooperation can be enhanced between Indonesia and Algeria, not only limited to the education in Lemhannas, but also in various sectors.

The courtesy call was concluded at 9:30 pm with an exchange of souvenirs.

GOVERNOR OF LEMHANNAS RI'S VISIT TO ANTV

The entourage was received by the President Director of ANTV Dudi Hendrakusuma, Finance Director David Sijabat, Head of Current Affairs Ivan

Harris, GM of Technical, Production & Operation Services Edy Sunaryo and General Manager of Corporate Communications Soraya Perucha.

During the meeting, the governor gave an explanation on Lemhannas RI and the purpose of the visit, which was for Lemhannas RI to build a strong relationship with the mass media, open up and communicate with the public.

The governor also conveyed that media, as one of the pillars of democracy, has a very strategic role in guarding the democratization process in Indonesia. Therefore, the governor hoped that ANTV, in this case, can participate in disseminating national values amidst the agenda of change promoted by Lemhannas RI in being a world class institution.

On the other hand, the ANTV management also gave a brief history of the ANTV existence which has been on-air for 18 years in Indonesia.

Furthermore, the ANTV President Director also conveyed that converting idealistic messages into visual images is a challenge, and it would be homework for the TV station.

After the discussion, the governor was invited to see one of ANTV live programs.

The visit was ended with an exchange of souvenirs between the governor and the ANTV President Director Dudi Hendrakusuma and a joint photo session.

“This consolidation event aims at developing a common vision and perception of the mechanisms of educational course”, said the governor in his opening remark.

Therefore, all the materials and technical guidelines relating to the educational courses of PPSA XVIII, PPRA XLVII and PPRA XLVIII will be disseminated so that that the programs can be implemented properly.

Lemhannas RI, this year, will carry out and manage educational programs for three batches at the same time, which are PPSAXVIII, PPRA XLVII and PPRA XLVIII. Consequently, the duties to be faced by Lemhannas RI will be heavier.

In his speech, the governor expected that the participants of the consolidation would anticipate such challenges and improve the quality of the education and analysis output of Lemhannas RI.

Apart from requiring the participants of the consolidation to understand the mechanisms and technical guidelines of the educational course, the governor also expected them to also continuously improve their professional competence according to their fields and professional responsibility.

“The participants of the consolidation activities have a central and dominant role for the successful implementation of the educational course,” said the governor.

“Expert staff members and resource persons are the reflection of educational quality that will be produced by the Lemhannas RI”, added the governor.

The consolidation activity was continued with a briefing from the Deputy Governor of Lemhannas RI Lieutenant General Moeldoko, S.I.P. about the management and leadership, which was later followed with a presentation from Prof. DR. Miyasto, SU regarding the laboratory of the national resilience measurement (Labkurtannas).

Those attending the event included the deputy governor, principal secretary, expert lecturers, expert analysts, expert professionals, resource persons and structural officials Lemhannas RI.

LEMHANNAS RI GOVERNOR'S VISIT TO LKBN ANTARA

The Governor of Lemhannas RI Prof. Dr. Budi Susilo Soepandji, D.E.A. had a visit and audience with the State News Agency (LKBN Antara) on January 11, 2012 in the Antara Building Floor 19, Jalan Medan Merdeka Selatan 17, Jakarta.

On the occasion, the governor had an audience with the Director of General Affairs of LKBN Antara Ahmad Mukhlis Yusuf, Director of Human Resources & General Affairs Radjab Ritonga and News Director M. Saiful Hadi.

The officials accompanying the governor included the Principal Secretary Drs. Chandra Manan Mangan, M.Si., Deputy for the Education of National-level Leaders Maj. Gen. Tony SB Hoesodo, S.I.P., M.Sc., Deputy for the Strengthening of National Values Rear Admiral Santoso, Analyst Expert in Economy Prof. Dr. Miyasto SU, Acting Head of Bureau of Public Relations Brigadier General Danu Nawawi, S. Sos., Head of Public Relations Division Megawarni Simamora, S.E., M.M., and Head of Protocol & Documentation Division Captain E. EstuPrabowo.

Since its establishment in 1937, LKBN Antara has been at the forefront for the provision of news to the public. Currently the news agency has built a partnership with the Asia Pacific News Agency, oananeews.org, the partners and world citizens can access the latest news updates broadcasted by 43 member agencies

Lemhannas RI and LKBN have a common view and task, which is to maintain the nationalism and the integrity of the Republic of Indonesia. Lemhannas RI itself has had an important role in maintaining the unitary state of the Republic of Indonesia since it was founded by the First President of the Republic of Indonesia, Sukarno, which until now has played a major role in providing nationalistic insights to all community stakeholders. However, the Indonesian people are currently faced with a wealth of information in the television that is made just to improve the program ratings. As a result, many programs are filled with sadism, dramatism, and the likes.

It was revealed during the discussion that Lemhannas RI and LKBN Antara has the same point of view regarding the integrity of the unitary state of the Republic of Indonesia and the importance of the national strength in safeguarding our territorial borders. LKBN Antara also offered a cooperation with Lemhannas RI by making use of the network already owned by the LKBN Antara either at home or abroad. Both parties can also develop a common agenda in building national characters through courses and education and sharing input regarding the latest national developments.

In response to the above issue, there is a common view for both Lemhannas RI and LKBN Antara for the need to have the same agenda. The media currently are in need of materials on nationalism, including LKBN Antara. Therefore, Lemhannas RI opens up broad possibilities for those involved in mass media to take part in a short course on the nationalistic insight and the strengthening of national values.

The visit was ended with an exchange of souvenirs between the governor and the Director of LKBN Antara and a photo session.

The Deputy Governor of Lemhannas RI Lt Gen Moeldoko open the initial briefing by the BPK on the 2011 Financial Statements of Lemhannas RI on Tuesday (17/01) at the Nusantara I Meeting Room, Trigatra Building, Lemhannas RI.

The Team of State Audit Board (BPK RI) which will audit the 2011 financial statements of Lemhannas RI as mandated by the 1945 Constitution Article 23 E, to investigate the management and accountability of state finances in order to promote transparency and accountability.

The BPK RI audit will be conducted for 35 working days starting from Tuesday, 17 January 2012.

It was also attended by the Principal Secretary, Deputy for the Education of National-level Leaders, Deputy the Strengthening of National Values, Vice Person-in-Charge of the BPK team Drs. Tangga M. Purba, M.M., Structural Officials of Lemhannas RI and the Audit Team members of BPK RI.

In order to facilitate the auditing, the Governor of Lemhannas RI in his speech read by the Deputy Governor of Lemhannas RI, hoped that all the leaders in the work units within Lemhannas RI, as the objects of auditing, would help BPK team through a good cooperation.

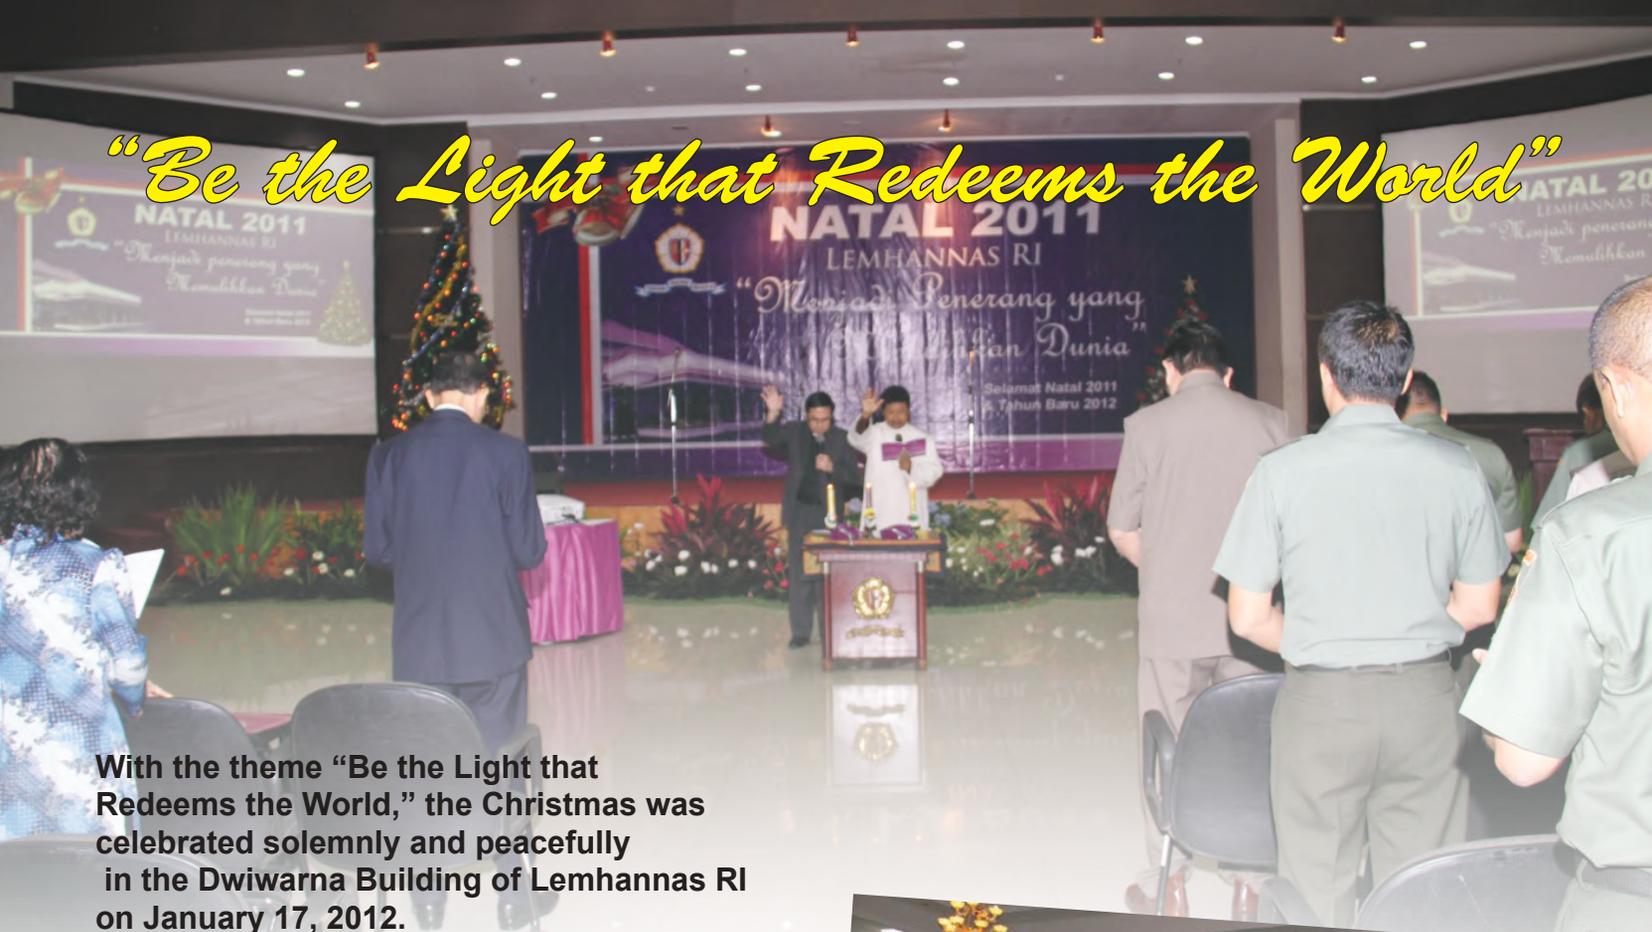

“During the auditing process by the BPK team, of course there would be a dynamic interaction between the BPK auditing team and Lemhannas’ work units, as the objects of auditing.

Therefore, I expect a good cooperation and coordination for establishing a harmonious working relationship, while maintaining and promoting the independence of the audit board, “ said the governor in a speech read by the deputy governor.

Such an emphasis was given so that the accountability of state finance management, as one of the good governance elements, can be realized and Lemhannas can have an equal position with similar institutions at the international level.

"Be the Light that Redeems the World"

With the theme "Be the Light that Redeems the World," the Christmas was celebrated solemnly and peacefully in the Dwiwarna Building of Lemhannas RI on January 17, 2012.

The Christmas celebration, which was attended by the Deputy Governor of Lemhannas RI Lt. Gen. Moeldoko, was attended by the structural officials, Christian members of Lemhannas RI, as well as the representatives from the TNI Headquarters and the Police Headquarters.

The sermons were given by Romo Suprpto, S.Ag. and Rev. Daniel Mailangkay.

"As an educational institution to prepare and strengthen its students to be national leadership cadres, we must become the torch or the light that keeps burning in order to give the light to our students," said the deputy governor when describing the mandate assumed by Lemhannas RI in determining the direction to be taken by the national leaders.

The activity was expected to be a reminder for the Christians in order to appreciate the meaning of Christmas, such as exemplary life, modesty, and humility in the context of maintaining the unity of the Unitary State of the Republic of Indonesia.

Lemhannas RI is a part of the Indonesian community, so that the values of modesty and humility must also be embedded and developed in our hearts.

"If simplicity and humility can be implemented in running the bureaucratic reform in this institution, then Lemhannas RI will be able to move forward as expected," said the deputy governor ending his opening remark.
